DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group 1, claim(s) 1-16, drawn to a method of analyzing a hydrocarbon zone comprising genotypic analysis for the presence of microorganisms.

Group 2, claim(s) 17-24, drawn to oligonucleotide probes.

Claim note: Use claims

Please note that claims 17 and 18 are 'use' claims, and that upon amendment of the claims to create statutory subject matter additional restriction of the claims may be required.

Further lack of unity requirement:

If applicants Elect the invention of Group 1, applicants shall further select a single specific combination of one or more probes selected from the group consisting of SEQ ID NO: 1 to SEQ ID NO: 19, as recited in claim 16 of Group 1. Claims reciting specific probes identified by a SEQ ID NO will only be examined in so far as they require the elected specific combination of probes. Claims requiring a non-elected combination will be withdrawn as to a non-elected invention. Claims that are generic with regard to required probes will be examined to their full generic extent.

If applicants Elect the invention of Group 2, applicants shall further select: (i) a single specific probe from the group consisting of SEQ ID NO: 5 to SEQ ID NO: 19

(relevant to claim 20 and 24); and (ii) a single particular combination of at least one probe selected from the group consisting of SEQ ID NO: 5 to SEQ ID NO: 19 (relevant to claims 21-24). Note that the selection of (ii) must contain the selection of (i). Claims reciting specific probes identified by a SEQ ID NO will only be examined in so far as they require the elected probe or specific combination of probes. Claims requiring a non-elected probe or probe combination will be withdrawn as to a non-elected invention. Claims that are generic with regard to required probes will be examined to their full generic extent.

2. The inventions listed as Groups 1 and 2 do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

3. The different groups do not share any common technical feature as the probes of Group 2 are neither recited in nor required for the method of independent claim 1 of Group 1. As such there is no special technical feature linking the two groups.

With regard to the Further lack of unity requirement, the different probes identified by different SEQ ID NOs are structurally distinct molecules as they are composed unique nucleotide sequences that are not common to one another. Thus the different probes and different combinations of probes and combinations of probes are unique.

4. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

5. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
